The 1986 Delphian is dedicated to Janis Fleming

e are told that no one is indispensible, but we are going to realize how close to that one can get when we lose Jan Fleming to retirement. Jan has been with this school district since its inception in 1961, and with Rolling Hills High School since 1967. She has been a part of this district as a parent and educator, as well as a highly competent secretary, first for the vice principal and since 1979 for this school's principal. This district has grown in many ways since that first year, but one thing that has remained constant has been Jan's attitude at getting the Job done in the best possible manner The word "no" is not in her vocabulary when it comes to helping resolve a need of the school. It is no exaggeration to say that Jan knows the "how with regard to the running of every aspect of this education facility. Jan has had many opportunities to transfer to positions offering her more compensation, but has always chosen to remain where her dedication has served best ,., sensitive to the needs of the students of our high school. She has contributed to the well-being of thousands of these students, directly or indirectly, and has always been committed to meeting the demands which must be met to attain their goals. Jan is a many faceted person, with a diversity of experience in business and education, and an extensive range of knowledge covering wide areas of Interest. Those who have not had the priviledge of knowing her have missed someone very special ... a person who is wifty and charming, sensitive and caring, into igent and compassionate For those of us who have known this extraordinary person, we can be thankful for her friendship, and the opportunity to see "lightning caught in a bottle

Counseling/ Special Services

his past year, the counseling staff met and overcame a number of challenges in providing excellent counseling and guidance to RH students. The goals of the staff included career guidance, improved communication, and personal counseling. This year students could choose their own counselor, which gave them the opportunity to communicate with someone they had confidence and trust in Special services at RH provided help in the nurse's office, abrary, career center, study hall, resource office, and actruities office. They aided students with reference materials, career counseling, medical advice, and student activities

Study Hall Supervisor Valene Newman

Business/Physical Education

An extensive business program was offered this year taught by an exceptional business staff. A variety of courses for both personal and vacational skills were available. Personal skills were developed through Typing A, Computers in Business and Business Math, while vacational skills were taught through Advanced Typing and Word Processing. With the acquisition of the latest in office equipment students were stimulated and ready for their future careers in business.

Ehe Physical Education faculty of fered a variety of courses to compiment a student's mental and aca demic courses with a refreshing ar are creational break from the academic program. The instructors realized the continuing physical awareness of this generation and integrated these values into the program.

Throughout this entire 1985-86 school year the senior class of Rolling Hills High School continually was spirited and enthusiastic. The seniors joined together to make this year the most exciting and memorable of their four high school years. The months were filled with numerous enjoyable and rewarding activities. Furthermore, with dedicated and competent officers who anxiously devoted their time, the class again experienced the many traditional activities with much enthusiasm. Some of these activities included the Senior Excursion to Catalina island, Grad Night at Disneyland. Baccalaureate, and the grand finale, Graduation ceremonies. Seniors will certainly always remember the lasting friendships, those unforgettable and sometimes unique experiences, and all the cheers and tears of that last year in high school. The future is waiting for these special students who proudly carried on the tradition of excellence at Rolling Hills High School.

he Class of 1987 had an exciting and memorable year. At the end of their sophomore year, the now juniors elected President Jason Anderson. Vice-president Grace Huang, and Secretary/Treasurer Sharon Adams. These distinguished officers have served their class with pride and devotion.

The juniors have many memories to recall in the future. Juniors, because they had find y after two long years, attained upperclassmen status, could legally leave campus during the noon time break. No longer limited to the food served in the cafeteria, juniors flocked from Rolling Hills in search of unique dining experiences, such as McDonald's. The uniqueness of their ability to leave school during, unch was augumented by their newly acquired skill. In driving the freedom of mobility aided the juniors in fully experiencing high school life. If freedom and mobility was a trait precious to this class.

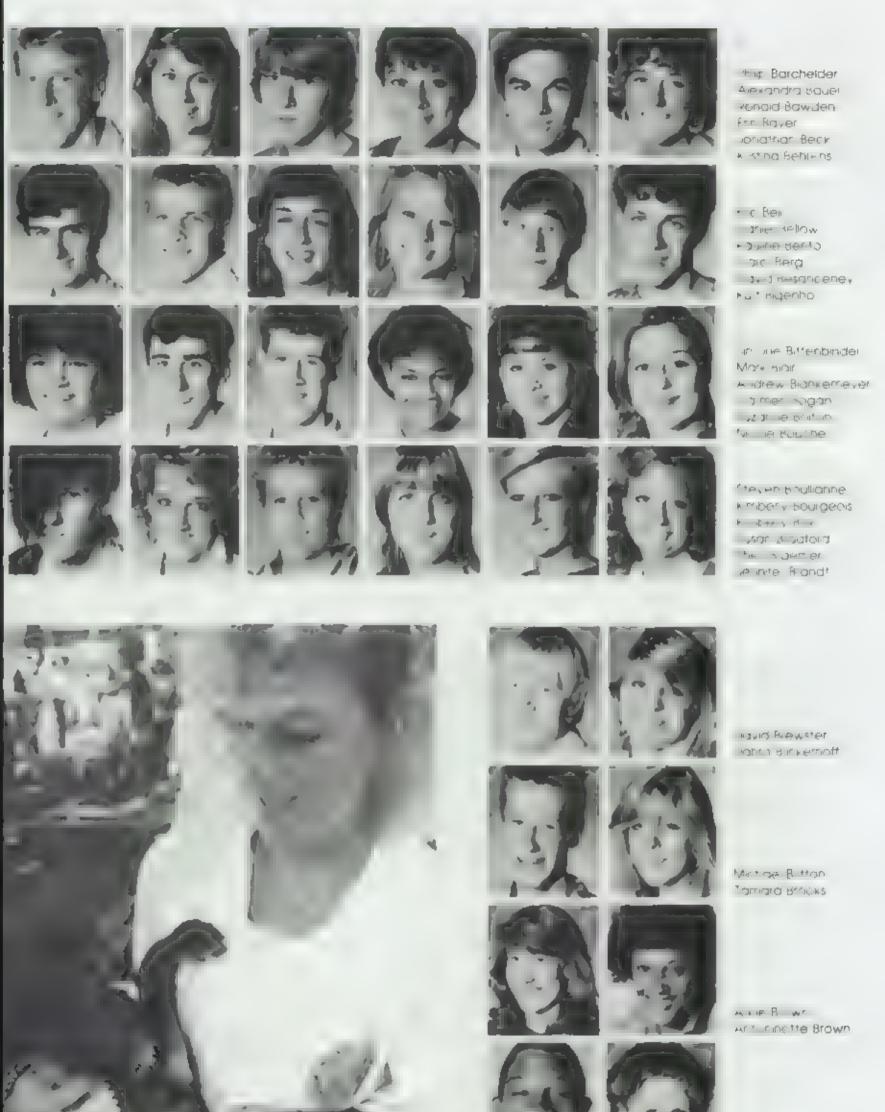

This year signature of the first time in history was a victory for the juniors, who opposed the seniors. Sponsored by the Letterm and a Club, the juniors versus seniors game did not feature any members of the faculty due to a dispute.

To raise funds the juniors sponsored an extremely profitable food booth during the Homecoming fair. Their booth consisted of the sale of not only pretzels but shaved lemonade ice. Following the footsteps of previous years, the juniors in accord with tradition, once again sponsored the annual spring prom. The class worked diligently to organize this event. The promises a huge success, something they will be able to reflect upon in the future.

This enthusiastic and creative class carried on the Rolling Hills High School tradition of uniqueness and excitement

This year's sophomore class was filled with new awareness and dedication Leader Kevin Guthine, the class President, was aided by Vice president Shawn Talbott and Secretary/Treasurer Laura Dox. These officers accepted a tremendous burden of work so that they could provide their class with numerous events and activities. During the Homecoming Fair, the sophomores sponsored two exciting booths, both of which were an enormous success. Their ping-pong fish toss and high striker games generated a large sum of much needed revenue. The class also sponsored and organized Soph Doll Week as Titans were entertained with noontime activities culminated by the crowning of the 1986 Soph Doll at the dance.

Sophomores enjoyed their newly assumed status on campus. No longer were they stereotypical "freshmen. Fully understanding the school and how to beat the system, the sophomores finally enjoyed this year. By the middle of June, most were looking to the future. Some had already acquired the greatly desired arriver's license. They all longed for their first lunchtime as a junior when they could leave campus.

This class joined in unison in sharing the pleasant memorable experiences associated with one's second year in high school. All of these members of the class of 88 enjoyed themselves and each was ready to move on to the next year.

Francisco June 1980

Freshmen his year's freshman class was led by President Kathleen Kuptz and Vicepresident Jackie Ballantyne. New to the Rolling Hills High School campus, most were surprised at the extreme contrast between a high school campus and that of an intermediate school. While several students were lost and late to their classes (it is rumored that some never made it) most had no difficulty in adapting to the larger campus. Many were surprised with the customs of the Rolling Hills campus, unfamiliar with how high school students entertain themselves Their first Homecoming Week was special Dedicated to their class, many individuals worked hard to earn recognition. During the fair, the Frosh class operated not only a marriage booth, but also a drawing booth. By the end of their first semester, most students were prepared to charge into finals week, an extreme test of their academic skills. After overcoming this hurdle, the freshmen were prepared to experience a relatively easy second semester. They thought that high school ife had been mastered

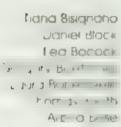

Under superbleadership dedication to their fellow classmates, the freshman class finally transversed their first, and perhaps most difficult year of high school. Each one is finally prepared to leave behind the status "Freshmen" and its negative connotations

ASB Elected Officers

uring this past year, the elected student budy officers worked a gently to provide excellent leadership for the large number of students at Rolling Hills High School Led by Associated Student Body President Cameron Bell and Vice-Presidents Roger Yang and Chuck Mason, the officers provided students with many informative and thought-provoking assemblies. Speaker of the House Scott Shean conducted meetings of representatives from each fourth period class. A greater amount of school spirit was generated through pep ralies and noontime activities held in the amphitheater. These elected officers were aided by several appointed officers whose specialized skills and tasks simplified the work load The combined experience and dedication of this group of student leaders was one of the greatest in the history of the school

'Go West' for Homecoming

he 1985 Homecoming inspired many students with its theme of Go West An entire week of numerous festivities culminated with the traditional home. coming fair and football, this year against arch-enemies Palos Verdes High The week began with a band performance by the King Pinz. The annual Battle of the Bands and a popular pep rally also franspired. The classes competed against each other in various entertaining events such as pie eating, tugs of war, and running an obstacle course. At the fair, there were numerous food and game booths The Physics Club was once again award ed a prize in creativity with their unique rope climb' contest. An exciting moment was the coronation of Homecoming Queen Jill Zurnaciyan and King Robert Nerwood hroughout the Past year, the Titan marching band and driviteam have brought excitement and honor to RH. The marching band consistently placed well among the performing groups. Drum Major Eva Wiese led the band as they played at football and basketball games, pep rallies and parades. The drill team also competed at parades as well as the short and tall flags. A highlight of the season was the squad's first place at the December Camarillo Parade.

At least that is what happened to Ruth and Eleen Sherwood in the RHRS drama department's hilarious presentation of "My Sister Eileen" for the fall play. The tale of the girls' autrageous ordeals and the superblacting ability of the players combined to make this production one of the best in the school's history. Stand-out performers were Erica Carnay as the sensible Ruth, Maile Jones as the sweet but haive Eileen, and Kaslo Sadr as Mr. Appopolous, the unscrupuous landlord. Other fine performances were given by Cathy Sullivan and Cam Bell, who had the audience stitches. This entertaining play was directed by Connie Mointyre who did a top rate job directing her first comedy.

January 16th Slays Rolling Hills

n the fourth and fifth of February, the Rolling Hiss High School Repertory Group presented Ayn Rand's, "Night of January 16th" at the Norns Community Theater. The play was produced by Connie McIntyre and directed by student Cathy Sullivan This two-act play transpired in New York during the 1950's

On the night of January 16th, William Faulkner exited the world of the living, he plunged from a penthouse suite atop a high-rise building. Two months later, his personal secretary, Karen Andre, portrayed by Steph anie Keefer, was accused of his murder. This play depicted the events of her trial

Heated debates between District Attorney Flint, the prosecutor (Kelly Wood), and Defense Attorney Ste vens (Kevin Carter) was moderated by Judge Heath (Erica Carnay)

Numerous witnesses were called upon to take the witness stand by each counsel. Each had a sightly different story to tell, each introduced new facts, each complicated the presented evidence

Several surprise witnesses appeared Faulkner's wife Nancy Lee Faulkner (Tina Hayward), and her father John Graham (Todd Deppe), emerged from seclusion to testify. Larry Regan (Chris Gilbert), an alleged member of the criminal underworld, presented himself to testify in Andre's defense

An interesting method was used in the play for the determining of Andre's fate. Fifteen members of the audience were selected to sit on stage and function as the jury. When all of the testimony ceased, they presented their verdict. In all three cases, Karen Andre was found not guilty

The jury that was picked from the audience car sisted at faculty and students and added to the exching performance that evening

Carousel" transpired during the late nineteenth century. The musical detailed the life of Bily Baelow (Larry Bacharach), a carouse barker courts Julie Jordan (Rachel Rubins). In doing so, he lost his job, but gained a wife When Billy discovered his wife was preanant he schemed with ex-convict Jigger Cragin (David Herold) to ambush a business figure and steal $3000.00. The plan fell through, and in the attack, Billy was killed. The piot ended with the attempted reconciliation of Billy, his wife, and daughter Bacharach and Rubins were outstanding and supported by numerous others, individuals who augmented the production's success. Came Pipperidge (Laura Wenger) and Enoch Snow were a popular pair. Additional support was provided by Mrs Mullins (Kelly Woods), and Sister Josephine (Stephanie Keefer) olling Hills High School had a spirited and determined Varsity Football team this year Junior quarterback Dan Bellows was a key player in many of the close games. The Titan defense was held together by such strong Seniors as defensive tackles Buddy Gervais and Justin Che, guard Geoff Kuhtman, defensive end Kevin Lyons, and Inebacker Pat Jarosz Titan offense consisted of such talented players as Doug Meilinger, Senior center, Senior receivers Charles Mason, Eric Hagenburger and Junior fullback Greg Thomas. Henry Martin was a great asset to the Varsity team, playing tailback and having the most fouchdowns scored by a Rolling Hills player this season. he 1985 86 Varsity Basketball team certainly earned their name as "The Best Show in Town". The team finished second in Bay League with a 10-2 record. The Varsity team was led by Senior starters, Rick Batt and Mike Rudberg Juniors Doug Dehr, Cameron Terry, and Trent Warren were the other starters for the team. Much of the credit for the Titan's success this year must go to the first year coach, Cliff Warren who took a 4-8 team and turned them into CIF championship contenders. The Varsity went as far as the semi-finals of the CIF playoffs to establish themselves as one of the best teams in Rolling Hills history

Water Polo

This year, like last, the Rolling Hill Water Polio team competed in the competitive Bay League, the 3-A division of CIF. The team finished with a 3-6 record in Bay League competition. The highlights of the season included their deteats of first place Mira Costa and arch-rival Palos Verdes. Rolling Hills Varsity was led by team captain Lawrence Donoghue. Other starters included. Kevin McGuire, Scott Murch, Peter Alperin, Matt. Armstrong. Mark Edelson, and Matt. Wiese, Kevin McGuire made first team in Bay League while Matt. Armstrong and Matt. Wiese made second team.

The future Varsity Water Polo feam should prove to be a strong and powerful feam because it will be composed of the same members of the Frosh-Soph feam that took first place this year

The team's come-from-behind. victory over cross town rival Palos Verdes showed great determination and stamina. Throughout the season an the members played well, contribut ing their skills to the team. Guard Laura Dox and forward Andrea Bausch were strong defenders, while Nu-Gina Rog ers and Kristina Behrens were consistent scorers. The junior varsity team also had a difficult season, but many of the team members show great potential in their sk is which they can pass on to the varsity squad in future years

With strong determination and concentration, Cathy Mallander uses her ball handling skills to ge past a Sea King defender. The Titans beat Palos Verdes in a toughly fought game 51-39.

Track

Spring of 1986 was a good season for the Gris Track team. They ran into little difficulty defeating several larger teams. A broad range of events were covered by strong competitors. Christy Lee was outstanding in the highjump, breaking school and league records repeatedly. The 440 relay team, composed of Antoinette Brown, Nu-Gina Rogers, Tricia Fuller, and Jennifer Jones, placed very high in several invitationals as well. Anne Polzin, competing in the triple jump, and Kim Forbes, competing in the hurdles, also placed highly in meets, strengthening the team's overall scores.

Softball

irls' Softball had yet another fantastic season in 1986. Season competition ended with the team holding an impressive record. This outstanding record allowed the team to advance to CIF playoffs. With the additional help of a new batting cage acquired early in the season, the team began to swing into winning action The squad sported a majority of seniors Including catcher Jean Tschida and second baseman Dani Pferffer, who holds an Impressive .300 batting average. Senior pitcher Andrea Bausch repeatedly proved invaluable to the team. Her fast pitch style struck-out a record 623 batters during her career at Rolling Hills. The skills of shortstop junior Kristina Hale and upcoming pitcher, junior Lisa Tom are a solid base on which the Titans can build a strong team for 1987. Undoubtedly, next season will be as much of a hit as 186 has been for the Girls' Softball team

Honors Organizations

uring the past year at Rolling Hills, there were three anguage honors organiza tions. These honor societies, devoted to the German, French, and Spanish languages, recognized students who demonstrated superb skills in mastering another language and understanding culture. Each of these students deserves a great deal of recagnition. In addition to the honor societies for students who excelled in a foreign language, Quill and Scroll honored those who made exceptional contributions to the Rolling Hills yearbook, the Deiphian, and the newspaper, the Titan Aninternational honor organization, Quill and Scroll has a prestigious reputation

I Remember, I Remember

remember remember
The house where I was born
The little window where the sun
Came peeping in at morn
He never came a wink too soon
Not brought too long a day
Rut now often wish the night
Had borne my breath away!

remember remember
The roses red and white
The viets and the lify ups
Thase figwers made of light
The liacs where the robin built
And where my brother set
The aburnum on his birthday —
The tree is living yet

remember remember
Where was used to swing
And thought the air must rush as tresh.
To swallows on the wing.
My spirit flew in feathers then.
That is so heavy now.
And summer pools could hardly cool.
The tever on my brown.

remember I remember
The fir trees dark and high
Lused to think their siender toos
Were close against the sky
It was a childish ignorance
But now 'tis little loy
To know I'm farther off from heavin
Than when I was a boy

Titan: a crazy, chaotic, and celebrated year elcome, welcome all. We are about to begin a whirlwind tour of the I tan newspaper office, commor y known as H-62 or "the room" Many stories, some possibly frue have been told about this room; one is of a black hole that swallows up chemicals, stories, and exacto knives. Another story tells of the toxic air, but enough of that. Sitting here in the front room are the staff's advisor busily typing, and a sparse, but dedicated group of writers anxiously (?) awaiting their next story assignments. Moving into the backroom, however, one can't help noticing the ever-building tensions filling the space, several roving reporters are disentangling the truths of RH administrative policies, the columnists discuss politics of every sort, the entertainment editor is spinning puns in anticipation of his next movie review, the copy editor is extolling the virtues of good grammar, an unburdened typesetter is chanting, "Can I type? Can I type?" The sports editors complain that none of their writers have turned in stories. Over here sit the editors-in-chief, who are screaming, "Where are the pictures, where are the axis; where is everything we need?" Now we'll walk outside the room — rarely do these journalists get to this point, but when they do, they can be easily recognized by headlines sticking to their clothes, border tape that ribbons their hair, and a dazed look and strange odor from those rumored "toxic" chemicals. They can also be seen every third Friday, running around RH with their finished product, the always-informative, ever-improving Titan

o not again! typifes the situation in H 62. Wheth er it is the Varityper Jamming or a certain picture not developed or even taken, there is certainly always a crisis. Another typesetter terminal was needed and that only added to the confusion, which alsos go with what terminal — how do we keep them straight? With eight eattors we managed to publish every three weeks, chemicals or no chemicals, and on that dreaded Friday, the editors would forge down to Gardena at 6 00 a.m. (yawn) to pick up the masterpiece only to find that "Happy Holidays" had fallen off, two sports pictures had been switched, and a cartoon had fallen onto a headline. Much hard work and long hours went into the preparation of that masterpiece. A feature editor wails, "I'm going to fail!" The editorial editor shrieks, "Too many opinions — again." And the news editor cries out, "Isn't anything happening on this compus!" The editors-in-chief plead, "Where is the other news editor, sports editor, ad manager, photographer?" No response . . . typical But It was fun . . . and rewarding

From The Editors

My past four years on the yearbook staff have been filled with nothing but good memories. Even though a great deal of work and hectic times accompanied putting together this year's yearbook, I am sorry that it is all over

I could never fully express the amount of gratitude I have for the many people who he ped me this year I'd first like to thank my Co-Editor Joe, for being a person who made some of the less enjoyable parts of putting this yearbook together a little more bearable. Wendy, and Susan, the two of you were a ways there to help me as well as the section editors. I can't forget Jeff, Donna, Henry, James, Lynn, Alan, Ken, Kate, and Lisa who put a great deat of time and effort into their sections Even though we had our "discussions" with the photographers, the yearbook would be nowhere without them. Thank you! I don't know what we would have done without Kurt and Spencer who were always there for us. A special thanks to Konnie Krislock for her guidance and input. I've undoubtedly saved the best for last, Sandy Grasinger. She always pulled us through every crisis Joe and I managed to get ourselves into Thank you for your time, and especially your energy which you gave so generously

The 22nd edition of the Delphian is here, thanks to the time and effort put in by the yearbook staff to complete this awesome task. Susan and Wendy, thanks for always being there. to help me out with layouts and copy. To all the section editors, thanks for providing new ideas for your sections and finishing them on time. Your motivation toward your staff. members was greatly appreciated. Henry, thanks to your staff for producing such fine quality pictures. To Pacific Studios and especially Kurt Jupin, thanks for taking the time to make those incredible pictures even better. Konnie Krislock, thanks for your creativity and assistance throughout the year. Without Sandy Grasinger, this publication would not have been possible. Her expertise, support, guidance and especially friendship helped me make it through the year. And finally to Jennifer . . . you're the best Co-Editor anyone could want! A combination of hard working personalities — Donna, Jeff, Lynn, Alan, Ken, Kate, David, Jimmy, Lisa, and Henry — all pulled together to create this beautiful yearbook

Those this book will help all of you at RHHS remember your style of 1986.
